STRING

STRING* (prices include string and labor)

Wilson:

NXT 16 & 17 (17 is thinner) gauge – A multifilament string bonded with polyurethane for excellent playability and shock absorption. If you have arm or shoulder injuries this string is an excellent choice. Ideal for 2.5 and above $40

Luxilon 4G 125 A softer polyester than ALU Power for good playability and is very durable, but takes it a step further by holding tension longer. Popular among tour players. Ideal for 3.5 players and above $40

AYTC's Ultimate Duo – A hybrid that gives players the advantages of a Luxilon 4G string paired with the playability of NXT. Ideal for 3.5 players and above. $42

Gamma:

TNT 16 & 17 (17 thinner) Gauge: A high performance string with controllable power, very good playability and durability. Pearl nylon coating gives it a crisp feel. Ideal for players 3.0 and above. $35

Green Moto: This monofilament (Solid Core) has 7 shaped edges to allow massive spin potential for an affordable price. The string plays well at lower tensions as well. Ideal for 3.0 and above players. (Juniors will love the color) $32

Revelation: This live wire is an engineered and activated string that is designed to be easy on the arm, although has great elasticity to create a mini trampoline effect and thus a little more power. Ideal for players 3.0 and above $32

iOsoft 16: The freedom to attack the ball and not worry about over hitting. A top level control string 3.0+ $32

Synthetic with Wearguard 16 & 17 gauge – A good all-around string w/wear resistant coating for long life. Great for players of all levels. $27

Babolat:

Origin 16 & 17: Unknown 😊, but power and comfort is felt with the ability for impressive spin for a non-poly. Ideal for players 3.5 and above $45

RPM Blast 16 & 17: The slightly softer Polyester string. Great for players looking for maximum control, durability and spin. Good for big hitters. Rafael Nadal's String of choice. 3.0+ $40

Addiction 16 & 17: Power, comfort and feel rolled into one. You will feel a little more pop on your racket, while gaining a little durability over traditional multifilament and still having control. Designed for 2.5+ players $32

Labor ONLY (you provide your own string) $22
